IMPORTANT INFORMATION

BACK TO SCHOOL - WEDNESDAY 7TH SEPTEMBER

Dear Parents,

This is our last newsletter of this school year, and what a busy year it has been! I would like to thank all of the children and staff at All Saints and Needwood for making both schools such positive and wonderful places to be! It has been great to be able to do Church services, sports days and all the other 'normal' activities again, but it is now time for a well-needed rest. Although we still have a few days to go, I do want to wish everyone a restful summer, and I hope the children come back in September recharged and raring to go for the new school year!

As some of you may know, Mrs Jones is expecting twins later this year. We are looking forward to working with her in the Autumn term and finding a replacement for her maternity leave. We will keep you updated with staffing changes as we go through the Autumn term.

I would like to wish some of our staff the very best of wishes, as they are leaving at the end of term. Thank you and very best wishes to Mrs Neeson, Mrs Cooper and Mrs Goring, who are all leaving us next week. A big thank you to them for their years of service to Needwood School.

Have a wonderful summer holiday when it arrives, thank you to all of our parents and families for your support.

Best wishes,

Mr Baxter

ACORNS

Mrs Slater has stepped back from being in Acorns club, thank you for all the support she has given over the last year to make it such a successful wrap around for the school. She will still take bookings for us through Dojo and you are able to contact her in case of cancellation, last minute bookings etc in September. Dojo is the best and most efficient way to change bookings so please contact her. We welcome Mrs Richards to the Acorns team in the afternoons. Thank you Mrs Slater for everything you do and continue to do.

NEVER ALONE

At National Online Safety, we believe in empowering parents, carers and trusted adults with the information to hold an informed conversation about online safety with their children, should they feel it is needed. This guide focuses on one of many issues which we believe trusted adults should be aware of. Please visit www.nationalonlinesafety.com for further guides, hints and tips for adults.

12 Ways to Champion EQUALITY ONLINE

In terms of the esteem it's held in, women's football has made impressive progress in a short space of time. That's a bit like the online world: it's come a long way, but that doesn't mean we should stop trying to make it even better. The Women's European Football Championships are underway, and that's a timely reminder of how important it is to give everyone the respect they deserve online – regardless of gender, race, sexual orientation, religion or anything else. In partnership with the Global Equality Commission, we've produced a special guide to help young fans kick online discrimination into touch!

1 KNOW IT WHEN YOU SEE IT

Expressing views based on prejudice about a part of someone's identity – their race, gender or a disability, say – counts as online hate.

2 WHEN "BANTER" ISN'T FUNNY

Discrimination is sometimes disguised as humour: some memes, clips or gifs that certain people try to pass off as "funny" might actually be offensive.

3 BE YOUR OWN PERSON

Set a good example through your own online communication. Think whether you'd say a thing in real life before posting or sharing it online for the world to see.

4 SEEING SHOULDN'T EQUAL BELIEVING

Sneakier, less obvious types of online abuse can stay on the internet for longer, so don't assume that something's OK just because it's not been taken down yet.

5 SEXISM CAN BE ILLEGAL

As well as being extremely hurtful to a person or a group, online sexism and prejudice against women (known as misogyny) can be recorded as a hate crime in some cases.

6 ONLINE HATE, USED AS BAIT

Sadly, it's not just that being exposed to prejudice online is upsetting – some extreme organisations even try to recruit young people to their cause.

7 GET SOME DISTANCE

If you see messages online that upset you, it's probably time to give yourself some space from that site or app. Talk to a trusted adult about how you're feeling.

8 TURN OFF THE HATERS

If someone you follow on social media is posting sexist content, you could always mute them or block them – or unfollow them altogether.

9 PLAY IT BY THE BOOK

If you see someone discriminating online, you don't have to challenge them yourself. Screenshot their post and report them to the app or site you saw it on.

10 EXPLOITING 'PACK MENTALITY'

Sexist messages aren't always sent to a target directly: sometimes, they're posts designed to provoke misogyny among other people.

11 POSITIVITY ALWAYS WINS

Go the extra mile and spread some positive vibes! Instead of just reacting to a post and scrolling past, you could add a message of support and encouragement, too.

12 CREATE THE WORLD YOU WANT

Remember, you're the boss of your online world. Engage with posts or accounts that celebrate equality and understanding: block or unfollow the ones that don't.
